

WIRES KEPT OUT OF THE ARENA

W. S. O'Brien, manager of the local office of the Postal Telegraph company, received the following telegram from headquarters:

"In order to avoid misunderstanding as to our position, please advise principal newspapers and others that, having in mind the distance from the arena to our Reno office, we were prepared to extend our wires into the arena for the handling of such press association and newspaper matters that may have been offered, but the promoters will not permit us to connect our wires with the ringside and will not guarantee us against interruption of the same during the progress of the fight, therefore, we will handle all matter as best we can under the circumstances."

It is said that the promoters of the big match asked the telegraph companies an exorbitant price in order to get their wires to the ringside.

VISITOR IS FAVORABLY IMPRESSED

John F. Kelly, of Britton, South Dakota, is visiting his brother-in-law, W. S. O'Brien, local manager of the Postal Telegraph, and incidentally looking over the country as to opportunity for investment. Mr. Kelly, has holdings in Ogden but intends to increase them and Mr. O'Brien is using every effort to have his brother-in-law locate here and so far his efforts seem to be about crowned with success, as Mr. Kelly has quite made up his mind to make this city his home. He is a banker in Britton, and was told by a number of capitalists at that place to keep a lookout for good investments. As well as banker, he is a farmer on a very large scale, as he harvested 20,000 acres of wheat last year.

After traveling from Texas to British Columbia in search of a location, and at present favoring Ogden and vicinity, is in the nature of a boost for Ogden.

SOCIETY

A DAY IN THE CANYON.

Last Thursday a delegation of the G. I. A. ladies of Evanston went to Ogden canyon and enjoyed a most pleasant day. Among those were Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Rein Burk, Mesdames Bodine, Gunnell, Baker, Baden, Case, J. P. Clark, Bert Gilchrist, Hammerson and Gernsey. They were met at the depot by Sisters Hupfer, James Kinney, Maher, Claude Linsley, Warner, Perrins and Ray Linsley (members of the Evanston order who reside in Ogden). They were accompanied to the canyon by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Linsley, Mr. and Mrs. Mayton Haley, Dan Bayce and C. Poulitz, air brake instructors, Traveling Engineer Gilpin, Ralph L. Moller and Wm. McRoberts, special apprentices in examining engines; Mrs. S. J. Van Ness, Mrs. Jerry Kellner, Mrs. Wm. Roth and A. J. Schott, who composed the jolliest party that has visited the canyon since the disappearance of the comet. Contrary to the report in Ogden papers, the Evanston ladies were not the guests of the Ogden lodge, but are under special obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Linsley and Mr. and Mrs. Mayton Haley for delicious ice cream furnished the entire party, and to Mr. Poulitz for a generous supply of chewing gum which he provided at the request of Mrs. Baker, the jolliest "Indian" of the tribe. The day was fraught with genuine pleasure and the ladies returned to their homes in this city highly elated over a day spent among nature's beauties and with a crowd of the best "throttle-pullers" on any system.—Wyoming Times.

BREAKFAST SOCIAL.

One of the most delightful social functions of this week was the breakfast given by Mrs. W. A. Middleton and her daughter, Miss Edna, at their pretty home on Twenty-second street, Friday, in honor of Mrs. Mabel Lothrop of Berkeley, California, and Mrs. Geo. Linsley, Mrs. Middleton's niece, of Sparks, Nevada. The house was prettily decorated with roses and marguerites. A large screened porch, artistically draped with bunting, stars and stripes, with "Old Glory" everywhere in evidence, a long table splended in its appointments, with a great center piece of marguerites, arranged for twenty-four plates, was the principal scene of festivities, the dining room also being beautifully arranged for several people.

Beginning at 11 a. m. a four-course breakfast was served, Misses Lothrop, Rowlands and Laird assisting. The invited guests were as follows: Mrs. Mabel Lothrop and daughter, Mabel, of Berkeley, Cal.; Mrs. Geo. Linsley, Sparks; Miss Reba Zimmerman, Lawrence, Kan.; Mrs. T. C. Rowlands, Mrs. Leek, Mrs. J. M. Forristall, and sister, Mrs. Gertrude Carr, Miss Edna Richards, Mrs. J. T. DeWitt, Mrs. H. L. Griffin, Mrs. S. J. Griffin, Miss Irene Rowlands, Mrs. Frank Peterson, Mrs. F. S. Laird, Mrs. E. W. Matson, Miss Eva Leek, Miss Irene Griffin, Miss Bertha Laird, Miss Irene Short, Mrs. J. T. Rushmer, Mrs. J. C. Nye, Mrs. F. W. Baker, Mrs. James Robertson, Mrs. F. M. Nye, Mrs. E. J. Wherry, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. S. W. Wherry, Mrs. Geo. Craig, Mrs. F. L. Voorhees, Mrs. O. J. Stillwell, Mrs. N. Fletcher, Mrs. F. C. Smith, Mrs. A. W. Meek.

BRIGGS-WILSON.

Among the numerous June weddings recorded was that of Miss Alice Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Briggs, and James Wilson, at the Briggs home on Harrisville road. To the reception one hundred ten guests were invited. A delightful evening was spent and tempting refreshments were served on the lawn which was prettily lighted and effectively arranged for the occasion. The Redfield orchestra, assisted by Mr. Browning, furnished music during the evening, and vocal numbers by various guests were much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts with hearty congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends.

TRACY-JAMES.

The many friends of Miss Irma Tracy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Tracy, of this city, will be surprised to learn of her marriage to Geo. James, of Weiser, Idaho. The marriage took place at Ogden, on the fourteenth of June, in the Episcopal church, the Rev. Benjamin F. Meredith, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. James, accompanied by the bride's mother, left for Portland, where the young folks expect to make their home.

FROM WYOMING.

Superintendent Cramer of the Saratoga & Grand Encampment railroad and wife have been on a visit to Mrs. Cramer's mother, Mrs. E. S. Oakley, 149 Twenty-sixth street. The Wyoming road, of which Mr. Cramer has charge, extends from Walcott on the Union Pacific, south 47 miles to the copper mines of Grand Encampment.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Williamson announce the engagement of their daughter, Hattie, to W. F. Berryman of Blackfoot, Idaho, the marriage to take place Tuesday, July 5, 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. Franco Bond and son, of St. Louis, are the guests of J. G. Bond.

Mrs. A. E. Weatherby very pleasantly entertained the ladies of the Methodist Missionary society on Thursday afternoon, the occasion being the last session of the year before the summer recess. The reports of the officers showing a very successful year. After the business meeting delicious refreshments were served on the lawn and a pleasant social hour was spent, the society adjourning to meet on the second Wednesday in September.

On Wednesday evening Miss Marion A. Belknap entertained the Ogden stake Sunday school board at her home on Madison avenue. The affair was in honor of Desmond J. Barker, who leaves shortly for a mission to Switzerland and Germany. Progressive games were played and a musical program rendered. After delicious refreshments had been served a silk umbrella was presented to Mr. Barker as a token of love and esteem from the members of the board. Those present were Samuel G. Dye, Dr. and Mrs. Rich entertained twenty-four guests at a dinner party

OUR LAW-AWAY PLAN

You may select any quantity of the embroidery and by paying a small deposit have the same laid away until you are ready to use it.

FIVE DAY SALE

This sale is to continue just five days, beginning at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and ending with the closing of the store Saturday night.

We announce for Tuesday and the week July Sale of Embroideries

Tuesday morning--July 5th--we invite you to what will be our last exclusive Embroidery Sale this summer--If you can possibly see the window near our Washington entrance we advise it.

—The prices we quote today do not tell the whole story--only a small chapter, in fact--we have given these prices that you might know what to expect generally.

—Aside from a big list of special embroidery bought for this event we add our entire line of embroideries and insertions without reserve.

THIS LOT... 10c

Consists of 15c and 20c values--Cambrics 6 inches

Swiss up to 5 inches wide. In nearly every piece we have the insertions to match at the same prices. These will be placed on a table apart where you may choose them easily and quickly.

THIS LOT... 15c

We actually offer in this lot some Corset Cover Embroideries which are remarkable values. The patterns are dainty and lacy—not the cheap sort you expect at this price—in fact, these are the materials which would be counted cheap at 25c. These two will be on a table apart.

THIS LOT... 19c

Corset Cover Embroideries again in this lot at about one-half the regular value—the patterns are fine, carefully done in both Swiss and Cambric—there will be offered some other widths at this price—we consider, however, this to be the best value in the lot.

THIS LOT... 25c

In this lot we have the only item which will be limited in the amount which each customer might buy—$1.00 flouncings 22 and 24 inches wide—Swiss material for dresses, skirts, etc. The limit will be 4 yards to a customer. While we have considerable of the stock, we would like to have every customer share this bargain.

THIS LOT... 49c

This lot is more remarkable for the quality than for the width of embroideries and insertions. It is of a very fine Swiss material—perhaps the widest are 12 inches—regular 75c values—the patterns are of the very fine, modest, exquisite, just such qualities as appeal to the prospective bride.

THIS LOT... 79c

Flouncings of Venice edge on a very dainty quality of Batiste full 27 inches wide—the kind now being used for skirts, lingerie dresses, etc. The batiste on which it is embroidered is the daintiest of all lingerie materials. The Venice edge is the daintiest of all embroidery. These are worth $2 a yard when sold at regular price, now 79c.

Including also the entire regular stocks of our best and newest embroideries at discount of 1/3

Another Examiner Premium

The Examiner always endeavors to give its readers something useful. The little device below is the handiest utensil in the household for this time of the year—it is a seasonal premium, but at the same time it will be serviceable next winter. We want you to have one of these utensils, and you may have one by paying two months' subscription to the Examiner. The supply is limited, so you had better hurry.

This tool is designed to securely tighten and easily loosen covers on Mason Fruit Jars, and by the use of the roller attachment to smooth out uneven and damaged edges of covers so that they may be sealed, thus saving covers, fruit and labor.

It is the handiest article ever invented. It is worth 50 cents. By paying only two months' subscription you may take one home. It makes no difference whether you are a new or an old subscriber. In the matter of premiums everybody looks alike to the Examiner. This little device is exactly what is wanted in every home where there is a fruit jar to seal or a fruit jar to open. The Morning Examiner, seven days a week, delivered to your door, only 65 cents per month.

IT COSTS NO MORE

Good printing costs no more than the indifferent kind. Wouldn't you prefer a neatly printed card than a slovenly looking thing? The same applies to your office stationery. None of these points cost extra money. Ring up the Examiner office on either 'phone when you have some printing.

A HINT TO BUYERS

People who have watched the Real Estate market for years know that prices are lower during the months of July and August than they are in the fall. Real Estate dealers know that there is always much greater activity in the fall than at this time of the year.

Whether or not it is human nature it is nevertheless a fact that when the market is going up nearly everybody interested is determined to buy. A moment's reflection should convince anybody that the right time to purchase Real Estate is during a quiet, inactive period. During the months of July and August it is a good time to secure a farm, a building site, or a home, as the case may be, for at that time more is secured for the money expended. People who contemplate delaying their purchases in the hope that prices will wane would do better to buy at present values. It is well to be cautious, but it is not well to permit cautiousness to prevent the judgment from weighing conditions as they are and acting out the convictions derived therefrom.

While it is part of the business of a Real Estate firm to sell properties, it is also a part of its business to point out to its prospective customers market conditions, consistent values, etc. If the present is an inopportune time to buy, then we say that the experience of former years does not apply to the present situation.
